CARRYING BABY FACING TOWARDS YOUStep 1:

Secure Baby Carrier without your baby by fastening the buckle (1) on your back and make sure it is comfortable and secured by adjusting the shoulder straps (2).

Step 2:

Before putting your baby into the carrier, it is important that you adjust grip fasteners (3) above the leg on both sides of the carrier to ensure that the leg openings are at their smallest possible size to allow your baby's legs to sit comfortably within. Make sure that at least 50% of each grip fastener overlaps. When these adjustments have been made, tighten the side opening buckles (4).

Step 3:

Whilst seated, release head support buckles (5) on both sides. Carefully pass baby's legs through the fastened leg holes, and arms through the openings above the side opening buckles. Supporting baby's head, reconnect head support buckles (5) and tighten the straps to ensure head is well supported.
