HOT TO PLAY

The spy voice disguiser can record any sound and voice up to 5 seconds. Then when you play back the recording, it will play a completely different sound or voice. This way you can disguise your voice when you leave messages.

1. Press and hold the record button, you will hear 1 beep, and then you can start talking into the microphone to record your voice. Release the record button when you hear 3 beeps.
2. Move the disguise slide to the middle position for the best voice disguise.
3. Press the play button, it will play back the message you recorded.
4. Move the disguise slide back and forth while playing, and then you can hear how freaky you can make the sound. You can accelerate and decelerate it.
5. Press the play button to repeat the message over and over again.
