Assembly Instructions

Insert each hook into a pre-drilled hole by turning the hook in a clockwise motion. Complete this for all 13 hooks. Simply use a nail, screw or other fastener to secure it to a wall. It is recommended that for children under the age of 10 years old, the board is hung at a height of 1.27M and distance of 1.40M. For adults and children over the age of 10 years old, it is recommended that the board is hung at a height of 1.50M and a distance of 1.80M.

Rules to Play

In order to determine which player will go first, each player takes a turn tossing a ring at the board. The player with the highest score takes the first turn, while other players follow in scoring order. Players take their turn throwing 6 rings at the board one at a time and their score is totaled. If a player successfully places all 6 rings on the board during one turn, then that player is allowed another throw.

The object of the game is to be the first player to score 101. Players are not allowed to score above 101. If a player has a score of 98 and this player scores 5, then 5 is subtracted from the player's overall score making the score total 93. This player is now able to continue playing as normal, as long as there are rings remaining from their turn of 6.

Game Variations

Clockwise Fun:

The object of the game is to hook every number from 1 to 13 sequentially. First player to reach 13 wins. If a player does not hook the correct number, then that player's turn is considered over.

Beginners Luck:

This variation is great for younger children. Players simply agree on a total score that is perhaps less than 101 (i.e. 55) and players can either meet or exceed that number. You could also add another rule to increase the degree of difficulty, like whoever uses the fewest rings possible wins the game.
